The Honorable George W. Bush
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

You stated during your campaign, "we need to let the sun shine in and put all the facts on the table so everyone knows what the truth is." We agree. Respectfully, Mr. President, it is therefore long past time for you and your Administration to release documents and answer questions relating to the corporate scandals involving yourself, the Vice-President, the Deputy Attorney General and the Secretary of the Army.

Enclosed is a document that summarizes allegations that have been made about you and other high-ranking Administration officials. It is now well recognized that the lack of credibility of this Administration caused by these unanswered allegations has seriously hampered your ability to calm recent market upheavals. Indeed, much of the malaise in the economy has been attributed to suspicion among American investors that, like the CEOs of Enron and Worldcom, you and other officials in your Administration fell far short of the highest ethical standards and may have violated criminal laws in your business dealings. There is only one way to put these suspicions behind us: full disclosure.

Sincerely,

The block contains four handwritten signatures in black ink, each written over a horizontal line. From left to right, the signatures are: John Conyers, Jerrold Nadler, Maxine Waters, and Melvin L. Watt.
